

Mike Franco

Director of Creative Services & Logistical Operations

An experienced photographer Mike's eye for detail provides creative support for GlyMed Plus' advertising campaigns. Working in tandem with the marketing team Mike provides insight for developing the GlyMed brand. In addition to his creative responsibilities Mike also leads the logistics for the company. Managing the life cycle of GlyMed Plus' extensive product line, Mike provides inventory control and distribution support to the warehouse operations. In his free time, Mike enjoys many of Utah's outdoor recreational activities including camping, fishing, kayaking, bouldering and hiking with his family.
